LIVING ROOM AT THE DEWBERRY

334 Meeting Street
thedewberrycharleston.com

"The midcentury interiors seep with sophistication—luxurious velvet settees, cocktail tables and artfully-curated bookcases surround the brass bar. The perfect spot for cocktails."

The Ordinary

THE ORDINARY

544 King Street
eattheordinary.com

"Housed in a former 1920s bank building, the space still maintains a lot of the original structural character. High ceilings and crisp white tile create an upscale ambiance that complements the cuisine."

SLIGHTLY NORTH OF BROAD (S.N.O.B.)

192 East Bay Street
snobcharleston.com

"In a city where the restaurant scene is always changing, S.N.O.B. has established itself as a classic Charleston staple that feels like going home. Try the softshell crab!"

Stay

86 CANNON

86 Cannon Street
86cannon.com

"The epitome of updated southern luxury, with hand-painted floors, custom stencil art, and grass-cloth wall coverings. Just a bike ride away from the best bars and restaurants in town."

CROGHAN'S JEWEL BOX

308 King Street
croghansjewelbox.com

"From rare heirloom gems to fun statement pieces, you'll want to add everything in this 100-year-old store to your wish list. Expect a gentele southern welcome that will have you feeling like family."

Croghan's Jewel Box

HAMPDEN CLOTHING

314 King Street
hampdenclothing.com

"This large, airy clothing boutique features old-world tin ceilings, Edison bulb chandeliers, and Rebecca Atwood wallpaper. There's even a fully-stocked bar—because shopping is hard work."
